Global Seminar in English

Venture Growth After Entrepreneurial Failure

起業家の失敗後の成長

QREC hold "Global Seminar in English" in second semester intensive course. We will invite Dr. Yamakawa from Babson College.

Dr. Yamakawa teaches in the areas/intersections of Entrepreneurship, Strategy, and International Business. He is heavily engaged in teaching entrepreneurship in Japan. He has taught entrepreneurs, corporate executives, educators, and students at various institutions in Japan (e.g., government programs, universities).

Dr. Yamakawa's research explores the stimulants and constraints behind entrepreneurial learning and growth. His current research interests include learning from failure, dilemmas inherent in corporate venturing activities, failure of industry emergence, and bankruptcy laws and entrepreneurship development around the world. He has presented his research at major academic conferences, and his work has been published in leading Entrepreneurship/Management journals as well as in Japanese media.

QREC 集中講義「Global Seminar in English」は、Babson 大学より山川博士を招聘し、山川博士の研究分野である失敗からの成長について学びます。
