

CCK ASSISTANTS

In Japan, most services are offered in Japanese, as a result, due to the language barrier, foreign Students who cannot speak Japanese face challenges in accessing information and services such as opening bank accounts and finding accommodation which leads to stress, anxiety and frustration. We Provide bilingual personnel who speak Japanese and English to assist students in Fukuoka in opening bank accounts, as well as act as translator between the real estate agent and the client during the house hunting journey.

Chelsea Chen
Yixuan

Chanda Lungu

