(Performance of Activities)

1. Members of the student club shall participate in the activities of the student club at their own risk and discretion, and shall comply with the following items.

(1) To carry out the activities of the student club in cooperation with QREC and student club members.

(2) When using Kyushu University's facilities, equipment, or devices, etc., comply with Kyushu University's rules and regulations and use them in accordance with QREC's instructions.

(3) In the operation and activities of student clubs, abide by the rules established by Kyushu University (hereinafter referred to as "the University") and QREC, and do not engage in any behavior that interferes with the maintenance of order at the University.

(Confidentiality)

2. Members of student clubs shall properly manage information and know-how that is supposed to be kept secret and obtained in the course of student club activities with the care of a good manager under the direction of QREC and student club representatives, and shall not disclose or divulge such information to any third party without the prior consent of QREC and club representatives.

(Publication of activity results)

3. Members of student clubs must obtain the prior consent of QREC and the student club representatives before presenting the results of their activities or disclosing them to third parties.

(Handling after the participation period expires)

4. After the student club participation period expires, members must obtain prior approval from QREC and the student club representatives before disclosing confidential information, know-how, and results of activities as stipulated in 2.

(Compensation for damages)

5. Compensation for damages incurred during student club activities shall be as follows.

(1) If members of the student club intentionally or through gross negligence causes damage to the University, members, or collaborators in activities, the member shall compensate for the damage.

(2) If members of the student club cause damage to members or collaborators in activities, and the university compensates the party for the same damage, the university may seek compensation from such members.

(3) In the event that a member of the student club suffers physical or health damage due to reasons attributable to that person, neither the University nor any other member of the student club shall be liable for compensation
